2020 Shows:

Scent Work Trial Oct 10 – 11: Ben and Leah report that they are waiting to see how St. Helens Trial went last weekend. Lorraine reports that Exterior searches were in horse stalls. Walk throughs were virtual, posted on Facebook. Very few volunteers needed as everyone was assigned to groups posted electronically. Everyone wore masks. One Judge videoed every Exterior Team. There were warm up boxes. Lorraine suggested that the Club make an investment in nice ribbons.

Obedience/Rally Trials January 29, 30, 31, 2021: Jo Chinn and Camille Stephens. Jo reports that there will be two Obedience trials on Friday, and one Obedience and Rally for Saturday and Sunday. Volunteers still needed to Steward. No crating in barn. As Chris Cornell will be only Judge, entries will be limited. Trials will be held in Port Townsend. Club should see some profit if over 6 entries. Sue and Andy McGregor have offered the use of their barn. Expect to run Trial in such a manner to have back to back runs in order to allow entrants to show and go.

Old Business: None.

New Business: Lorraine discussed Christmas Party scheduled for December 16th, no party but may be virtual Annual Meeting. Need to decide how to hold election of Officers. Ben asked about Nominating Committee for October. Lorraine will send out request for Volunteers. The Nominating Committee must have at least one meeting between October and November. Jo would like to volunteer to do the Newsletter to keep members involved.

Braggs: Nancy Radich has a new Champion, with 5 points towards a Grand Champion. Her puppy went WB, BOW, and BOS her first time in the ring in Alaska. All armbands were with Show Chair, rings had an entrance with separate exit. Nancy saw no difference in judging procedures. Chris pointed out that some Judges wore face shields, but all were wearing masks. Chris also mentioned that Ben & Leah are looking into holding Trick Dog Classes. Lorraine's first time back in Scent Work Trial with Saffron was awesome, finishing in First Place Exterior Excellent and doing well the second day in spite of high winds.

Meeting adjourned at 7:58 p.m.

Respectfully submitted: Mariko Saum, Secretary
