President's Report: Scent work trial went fantastic. Everything so well run, thank you Ben and Leah Andrews. Hospitality was fantastic. Sequim High School issue of 2020 use to be handled by Board arranged meeting with Superintendent. Attending this meeting will be Chris Cornell, Lorraine Shore, and Joe Larson. They could not give a good reason for denying usage of the facility by HRKC. Chris Cornell gave a short history of use of High School. Superintendent will revisit cost of use. Chris will advise of result of meeting.

Treasurer Report: Attached.

Secretary's Report: None

Committee Reports:

Membership: Voting for new member, Dee Dee Stevens (Golden Retrievers)., email: cloudbreak@earthlink.net. Approved unanimously.

HRKC Scent Work: 225 entries, 37 dogs, 31 people, and 141 Qualifying runs. Judges were impressed with how well run and organized. Cost of $626.00 for weekend use of Fairgrounds. The Fairground was very helpful and complementary. Ben and Leah will look into having two trials per year, and whether to have a trial during Crab Fest. Leah Andrews thanked club members for their support. Elaine Diedrich asked for volunteers for her scent work trial to be held at Clallam Co. fairgrounds.
